Fig. S7. Model performance at unobserved locations. Histograms show the distribution of (A) absolute and (B) relative performance metrics for radar stations that were withheld from the training dataset. The blue tick marks show the median value across sites, and the red tick marks show the corresponding value for the randomly-selected test set (all locations included).